

As summer drew to a close Marylou Whitney and husband John Hendrickson donned hard hats to help unearth a "Buried Treasure" containing oversized pink and blue checks in the amount of $250,000 each to be added to a donation of $100,000 they had already made to boost the capital campaign fund for Saratoga's first cardiac catheterization lab. Two months earlier, the couple unveiled a book paying tribute to the legacy of her late husband, C.V. ("Sonny") Whitney. All proceeds from the sale of the book are being donated to the lab, bringing their combined gifts to the cause to well over $750,000.
